Summer Rugs and Mattings

IT WAS not so long ago that homes were stripped of half their furnishings in Spring and kept bare until Autumn.

They were times when people wore good clothes only on Sundays and special occasions.

But nowadays people do differently--

And so, all home makers, who turn bright faces to these coming brighter days will be glad to know that now ready is the

Showing of New Summer Rugs and Mattings

Most popular Summer floor coverings for porch, living room and bungalow, use our grass rugs and Dixie fiber rugs.

SEMI-MONTHLY PAY FOR RAILROAD MEN

Is Announced to Become Effective the Coming First of June.

The announcement has been made that effective June 1, the Baltimore and Ohio railroad will start the policy of making semi-monthly payments, instead of the present monthly pay. Local officials of the Baltimore and Ohio were questioned in regard to the matter, but all stated that nothing official to that effect had been given out. A dispatch from Cumberland says:

"On June 1 the Baltimore and Ohio will begin the policy of making semi-monthly payments to its working force. The auditing and treasury departments of the company are now at work on details of this change and have been at it for some time.

"State laws in Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania now require that these payments be made twice a month and the company has voluntarily extended the policy to include West Virginia and Maryland as well.

"This is expected to be of great benefit for those who work for the company and who depend on the pay for their living expenses. It is believed that many of them will be able to live cheaper by having the ready cash available to supply their needs than by having to seek accommodations from the tradesmen.

"It will mean the more frequent releasing of large sums in Cumberland,

Baptist church under the leadership of Mrs. Lee Williams, with Miss Cora Atchison and Mrs. Homer Williams accompanists. Miss Elliott, of Morgantown, charmed the audience with the rendering of her number and also with two encores, "Mighty Like a Rose," and "That Do You Think of That?" The obligato of "Evening Hymn," was pleasingly rendered by Miss Boardman, Mr. Aubrey Martin sang well his Old Scotch selections, also "Look Lomond" and "Italia."

Special mention must be made of the ladies quartet, "The Irish Love Song" by the male quartet, and also the rendering of the choruses so pleasingly executed by fifty well trained voices. Mrs. Williams is to be congratulated upon her excellent work and the great success of the concert being achieved by her superior leadership. Next spring under the direction of Mrs. Williams and Miss Atchison accompanist, a beautiful May Festival will be given with a chorus of 100 voices.

Birthday Party.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jones, of Rock Camp, very pleasantly entertained a number of their friends Saturday evening in honor of their sons, Carl and Earl's twelfth anniversary. Music and games were the pleasant diversions of the evening. At a seasonable hour dainty refreshments were served. The floral decorations throughout the rooms were beautiful and consisted of the flowers of the season. The menu consisted of ice, cake and fruit. They received many beautiful and useful presents. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Jones and son, Robert, of Clarksburg; Stella, Jennie and James Hannah, George, Otto, and Mollie Harbert, Mrs. Olive Nax, Silva Marsh, Lizzie Harbert, Carson Cunningham, Fonda Davidson, Otto Watkins, Lizzie Flanagan, Ray and Maggie Harbert, Hazel and Silva Jones, Gladys Bramer, Donna and Leon Stives, Chester Jones, Glenn Whitman, N.
